

James S. Evans Elementary School

Elementary General Music Syllabus

Textbook: The Music Connection, Silver Burdett Ginn - Classroom set

Class expectations and procedures:

In order to encourage a safe environment for learning, the expectations in the music room are:

BE RESPONSIBLE:

Play the instruments only when it is your turn.

Try your best in all you do.

BE RESPECTFUL:

Raise your hand before you speak.

Listen quietly when someone else is speaking.

BE SAFE:

Sit in your assigned spot.

When the expectations are not met, the consequences may include any of the following: verbal warning, seat change, time out, referral to the principal, and contact with the parent/guardian.

Recommended/required materials for class:

The District provides all required materials to be successful in meeting the basic course requirements and expectations.

Grading Procedures:

The music grade represents a composite of the student's achievement and performance in daily assignments and assessments. The grade may be derived from objective and subjective teacher evaluations and observations, including the student's demonstrations of criteria-based skills and techniques in performance and district-wide assessments.
